

District 7 Honorees of the Year, 2023

At the May 6, 2023, Convention of District 7 in Newport RI, Ahepans from the District were recognized as Honorees of the Year, as follows:

Dr. James Rouman, MD, Hellene of the Year, in recognition of exemplary services in health care practice and health care education, guided by Orthodox Christian principles and humanistic values.

Dr. Rouman accepting the Hellene of the Year award.

Additionally, the District recognized the staff of the Yankee News on their 10-year anniversary of dedicated service, and notably, also, Brother Jack Isaac, PSG, for his decades of distinguished service to Ahepa and District 7.

Pericles Moustakakis, Ahepan of the Year, for his exemplary leadership of Ahepa chapter 117 and his services to the community of the Saint George Greek Orthodox Church.

Nicholas Paindiris, Esq, Ahepa Entrepreneur of the Year, for his astute practice of Law in many areas of Jurisprudence and his demonstrated leadership in the legal community of CT.

Chapter 250, the Chapter of the Year, for exemplary service in advancing the mission and programs of the order of Ahepa.

Brother Jack Isaac recognized as the quintessential Ahepan.